THE WEEK IN SOCIETY.

With the Bog Show, one or two small dances, the Assembly Rall innumerable dinners, luncheous and receptions, society managed to amuse itself last week. The rush of gayety was hardly such as to justify calling it a carnival, but there was enough going on pleasantly to fill the days and nights. Washington's Birthday which is a distinctly migratory holiday, was, as in former years, utilized for patties to the country cipls, where today. for parties to the country clubs, where to-day there are large gatherings assembled, and all the pleasures that the Ice Kins can provide are being enjoyed to their fullest extent. At the Westchester Country Ciub, in the neighborhood of which many country houses are open, there is a gatherof bright spirits, while Tuxedo has its quota, and Orange and Meadewbrook are not deserted. One of the most important incidents of the week was the Charity Concert at the Hotel Renaissance, on Monday night, when over 200 of the first lights of society assembled to listen to an excellent consert famished by Mrs. Julie Wyman, Francis Fisher Powers and Victor Herbert, Miss Sanderson's place on the programme was taken, at the last moment, by Miss Cissie Loftus, who delighted the audience with several of her impersonations. Over $1.20 was realized for the three day nurseries for which the entertainment was given. beautiful gowns were worn, and there was a dazzling display of jewels, Mrs. S. Van Rensselact Cruger was in a gown of black satin, trimmed with pale blue velvet and lace. Mrs. H. W. McVicar was in white crepe, flecked with pale blue and trimmed with ruchings of light blue satin. alra, B. C. Porter wore a rich gown of black velvet, trimmed with white satin and lace, and wore handsome jewels, including a necklace of pearls and diamonds and a crescent of diamonds, latter in the coiffure. Mrs. William K. Vander hilt was in a gorgeous gown of cream-white satin, the corsage relieved with shoulder straps and bands of turquoise blue satin. She wore her fam-ous ropes of pearls and a diamond crescent in her Mis: Consuelo Vanderbilt was in a pretty gown of rose-pink satin and chiffon. Mrs. James P. Kernochan was in mauve brocade, with trimmings of sable. She wore a coronet of diamond stars and some handsome diamonds in a black velvet band around the neck. Mrs. Henri M. Braem was in chocolate and white brocade, with trimmings of point lace. Mrs. I. Townsend Burden was in a rich gown of pale mauve satin, trimmed with bows of a deeper shade of mauve satin and lace. In her offure she wore a pair of diamond Mercury wings, in the centre of which was a large diamond star. The corsage was studded with diamonds and sapphire ornaments, Mrs. David H. King, jr., was in black moire and lace, the coreage decorated with many diamond ornaments and a single American Brauty rose. Mrs. Charles B. Alexander was in a light shade of gray moire, the skirt trimmed with bands of black velvet and the corsage ornamented with silver embroidery. Her gems were pearls and Mamonds. Mrs. Kinsley Magoun was in black velvet, with a large bunch of purple violets on the corsage. Mrs. Arthur M. Dodge was in black moire and velvet. Mrs. Frederic H. Betts was in black velvet, the corsage made with a deep fall of Italian lace and embellished with bows of cerise velvet. Mrs. W. Rhinelander Stewart was in black velvet and lace, the corsage decorated with a single diamend star. Mrs. Burke Roche was in pale blue satin, combined with white silk trimmed with handsome lace. Mrs. C. C. Jackson was in maroon-colored velvet; the coiffure ornamented with a diamond butterfly. Miss Jackson was in pale blue satin, with lace trimmings in the corsage, and a cluster of pink carnations. Mrs. James Andariese was in a gown of white corded silk and lace, and Mrs. Elisha Dyer, jr., was in a striking gown of blue satin flecked with sliver and trimmed with lace and large bows of blue satin ribbon. Mrs. Clarence Gray Dinsmore was in black moire and crepe, the corsage relieved by a large bow of carnation-red satin ribbon. Mrs. William Jay was in black and white striped silk, the corsage trimmed with black chantilly lace. Mrs. Paran Stevens's dance was the principal incident on Tuesday. The guests, who numbered less than 200, not only represented society, but the drama, music, literary and art circles as well. Mrs. Stevens, who is a delightful hostess, received her guests in a handsome gown of pale mauve brocade. guests in a handsome gown of pale mauve brocade. The cotilion was led by Elisha Dyer, jr., and in the several figures many handsome favors were distributed. The last Assembly Bail of the season, which was held at Sherry's on Thursday night, was one of the gayest of the winter, besides being one of the prettiest. Mrs. Elbridge T. Gerry, Mrs. S. Van Rensselaer Cruger and Mrs. M. Orme Wilson, the last named in a rich costume of white satin, and wearing handsome diamonds, received the guests in the pink room, which, in its dress of pink and white flowers, and a display of tail growing trees, had never before presented a more attractive appearance. In the ballroom and in the supper room it looked as if the guests must have been chosen for their beauty and with a view to the ornalized and being true to the following the following the first of the Colonial Pames of the State of New York, with flustrations, March it. Edward Eggleston, "Early Land and Labor Systems" lafe, and April 1, Edward Eggleston, "Breadwinning, Moneymaking, Trade and Plracy, Tick ets for the course are E, and single tickets it. Trickets may be obtained at the Waldorf, newsytork section of the Capitol at Washington.

A series of five lectures on Colonial subjects will be given on Monday afternoons in Lent at J o'clock in the ballroom of the Waldorf, under the auspices of the Colonial Dames of the State of New York, with flustrations, March it, Edward Eggleston, "First Counted the Labor Systems" Lafe, and April 1, Edward Eggleston, "Breadwinning, Moneymaking, Trade and Plracy, Tick ets for the course are E, and single tickets it. Tickets may be obtained at the Waldorf, newsytant, and the colonial properties of the Colonial Dames of the State of New York, with flustrations, March it, Edward Eggleston, "First Counted Walderness", March it, Edward Eggleston, "First Counted Walderness", March it, Edward Eggleston, "Early Land and Labor Systems" Lafe, and April 1, Edward Eggleston, "Breadwinting, Moneymaking, Trade and Plracy, Tick ets for the Colonial A chosen for their beauty and with mentation of the rooms. It was a notable assem-blage of girls and young matrons, and even in this season of lavishness in jewels and brocades the gowns were distinctly beautiful. There was not a trace of the sere and yellow about the ball. The women looked as fresh and their gowns as un ruffled as if it had been the first instead of the last of the Assemblies. Some pretty favors consisting of handsome sash ribbons, fancy butterflies and flowers, were distributed in the cotillon, which was led by Franklin Bartlett and Mrs. Prescott Lawrence, and danced after supper. Mrs. J. J. Emory's brunette beauty was shown off to excellent advantage in a rich gown of lemon-colored satin shot with silver, the corsage decorated with clusters of American Beauty roses, and a large brooch of diamonds and emeralds. Mrs. Paul Tuckerman wore a gown of black satin on which there were trimmings of white slik and jet. Mrs. Joseph Drexel was in a handsome gown of mauve brocade and point lace, and wore an arrangement of diamond stars in the Le Grand Cannon's delicate blond beauty was effectively displayed in a gown Francklyn's delicate refined beauty was framed in a gown of pale pink moire, the corsage trimmed with pearl passementerie and a cluster of white hyacinths. The Countess de Montsauinin wore a gown of black satin, embellished with sliver spangles. Her ornaments were a coronet of diamonds and a necklace of pearls. Mile de Montsaulnin was in a gown of cream white satin, the corsage veiled with sliver spangled tuile. Mrs. Joseph Larocque, ir., looked exceedingly handsome in a gown of white satin with trimmings of a delicate shade of pink. Mrs. Frederick D. Grant was in pale pink moire, the corsage made with a deep fall of coral pink veivet. Miss Julia Grant, her daughter, wore a gown of blue satin made with short voluminous sleeves of white tuile. Miss Eleanor Hewitt was in a rainbow slik with trimmings of cerise velvet and lace. Mrs. Ferdinand Wilmerding and Mrs. John Christopher Wilmerding were in black moire, the latter's gown being trimmed with bows of deep crimson satin. Miss Alice Tracy Wilmerding looked extremely handsome in a pretty dress of pale blue slik and tuile. The dowager element was decidedly in the minority, and the absence of elderly matroom was commented upon by many of the guests. The Assembiles next winter will again be held at Sher-Ty's. in a gown of cream white satin, the corsage veiled in the minority, and the absence of eiderly matrons was commented upon by many of the guests. The Assembiles next winter will again be held at Sherriy's.

Other incidents of the week included a delightful reception at the handsome home of Mr. and Mrs. De Lancey Nicoll. No. 12: East Thirty-eighth-st., and a most enjoyable reception with music given by Mrs. Dillon-Oliver, at her home, No. 67! Madison-ave., on Wednesday afternoon, when the hestess, accompanied, by the orchestra of the Junior Philharmonic Society, delighted her guests by playing a concerto by Schumenn. Mrs. Dillon-Oliver, who sails for Europe early in May, will give another large reception with music at her home some time in April. Mrs. Nicoll's reception was one of the crushes of the season. The hostess received alone in the middle drawing-room, which was most effectively decorated with clusters of American Beauty roses and illies of the valley. Miss Constance Schieffelin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Schieffelin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Schieffelin, but the week were quiet affairs. One of the prettlest, as it was one of the smallest, too, was that of Miss Helen G. Jennings to Dr. Walter B. James, which was celebrated at noon on Wednesday, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Oliver Burr Jennings. No. 48 Park-ave. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Walter Jennings, was unattended. The reception and breakfast were for the immediate family and intimate friends. Pr. James and his bride, when they return from their Southern trip, will live at No. 298 Madison-ave. The marriage of Miss Rose Elmes, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Webster Elmes, to Frank Gardner Alden will take place Tuesday evening, at 8:39 o'clock, in the Church of the Heavenly Rest, Fifth-ave, and Forty-fifth-st. The marriage ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Dr. D. Parker Morgan, the rector. The bride will be dressed in white satin. Miss Bessie McKee, a young cousin, who will dress in pink, will be maid of honor and the bride's only stendam. Hugh McCl bride, will be the bridesmaids. There will be no maid of homor or ushers. The bridegroom will be attended by his cousin, Edward Leeds, as best man.

Robert Loftin Newman, the painter, entertained a number of friends at his studio, Carnegie Music Hail Building, on Tuesslay evening. The guests were received by Mrs. Pedro de Cordoba. Miss Anna Meigs Case. Miss Corinne Flint and Miss Mathilde de Cordoba. Miss Addie L. Ysaacs, late of Paris, France, played selections from Schumann. Chopin and Liszt. Miss Flint, the violinist, played a nocturne by Field, a composition by Sarasate, and a mazourka by Wienlawski. She was accompanied by her brother, Peter Flint. There was informal darcing. Among those present were Miss Estelle Ysaacs, Miss Chambers, Miss Decker, Francis P. Hastings, ex-Leutenant Warner. H. Nostrand. United States Navy: Frederic W. Flint and Dr. Frederic Gillette.

The last meeting for this season of Mrs. Benjamin S. Church's Dancing Class took place hist night in the large ballroom at Sherry's. Mrs. Church was assisted in receiving by the other patronesses. Mrs. Frederic J. de Peyster, Mrs. John T. Hall. Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish Morris, Mrs. John T. Hall. Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish Morris, Mrs. John T. Hall. Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish Morris, Mrs. John Irving, Mrs. Frederic Goodridge, Mrs. Valentine Hall, Mrs. Walden Pell and Mrs. Walton Oakley. There were many pretty favors for the several fluores in the cotilion, which was led by J. Wainwright. Among those in the class are Miss Sarah Fuller, Miss Angelica Chuyler Church, the Misses de Peyster, Miss Janet Henderson, Miss Ethel Whitney, Miss May Beckman, Miss Marian Cruger Coffin, Miss Angelica Livingston, Miss Mand Hall, the Misses Barclay, Miss Beatrix Post, Miss Marion McKeever, Miss Atterbury, Miss May Nest, Miss Bertha Mundt, Miss Madeline Cutting, Miss Landerine Capitiskie, Miss Elele Coster, Miss Frederic Harriman, Robert L. Livingston, Piercy Rockefeller, Bhinelander Waldo, Frederic Ashton de Peyster, Rush Duer, Roger Winthrop, Henry S. Morton, James Fell, Messt Mme di Cesnola will not receive on Ash Wednesday.

Mrs. F. F. Marbury, of No. 150 West Fifty-ninth-st., has invitations out for a musicale on Tuesday st., has invitations out for a musicale on Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Charles Fletcher Ramsdell, of No. 212 East Fifty-seventh-st., gave an afternoon tea on Friday, from 3 until 6 o'clock. Mrs. Ramsdell was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Horace M. Kilborn. Mrs. W. J. Browne, Miss Florence A. Browne and Miss Clara Lucile Williams. They all wore pink, and the floral decorations were pink carnations and violets. Among those invited were the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Charles Miller, Miss Miller, the Rev. Dr. William H. Pott, Dr. Stephen Kelly. Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Kelly. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson Fowler, Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Ramsdell, Dr. and Mrs. E. Eldridge Quinlan, Dr. and Mrs. R. Disbrow, Mr. and Mrs. James Williams, Dr. and Mrs. Alexander Haden, Mr. and Mrs. George Bond, Mr. and Mrs. M. Wright, Harry D. Ramsdell, Frank DeR. Pell, the Misses Inglis, Mr. and Mrs. William Disbrow, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Kennedy and the Rev. B. F. Kidder.

Miss Susan M. Stone, the daughter of William L. Stone, gave an afternoon tea at her father's home in Mount Vernou vesterday. She was assisted in

Miss Susan M. Stone, the daughter of William L. Stone, gave an afternoon tea at her father's home in Mount Vernon yesterday. She was assisted in receiving by Mrs. William J. Bacon, the widow of Judge Bacon, of Utlea; Miss Frank and Mrs. Parker D. Handy, the wife of the banker, of New-York City, Among the many guests present were the Rev. H. L. Wayland, of Philadelphia; Miss Neille Handy. Mrs. George H. Havens, of New-York City, Miss. S. M. Wayland, of Washington, Mrs. Ely, of Newburg, and Mrs. A. D. Stone, John Hay, of Washington, a college mate of Mr. Stone who expected to be present with his wife, was unexpectedly detained. The occasion was an enjoyable one especially as the guests had the opperatualty of seeing Mr. Stone's gailery of paintings, which include portraits by Page, Inman, Jarvis, Malbone and Colonel Trumbull, the painter of the large Revolutionary battle scenes in the rotunda of the Capitol at Washington.

ciety is intensely interested in the approaching nupitals of Miss Anna Gould and Count de Castel lane, nor have the members of the fashionals world thus far extinced an unworld dear and the castel lane, nor have the members of the fashionals world thus far extended the county of the castel lane, nor have the members of the fashionals world the castel fash of the castel lane, and the group of the castel of the castel lane, and the dear of the castel lane, and the group of the castel lane, and the castel lane, and the programme of arrangements for the wedding was perfected list evening. Instead of having a buffet brockfast after the ceremony, a most elaborate stidown breakfast will be served by Sherry at small tables, which will be served by Sherry at small tables, which will be served by Sherry at small tables, which will be handsome, decorated with orchids and roses. The bride and bridegroom, with their attendants. Miss felica Gould, the maid of honor, Miss Catharine Cameron, Miss Beatries Richardson, and the castellane, the best man; the underg, Howard Gould, Prince del Drago and Charles Reaoul-Duval, the ushers; and the pages, Kingdon Gould and Jay Gould-will be seated at a table which will be of a totally different style from the others. Archbishop Corrigan, who is to perform the marriage ceremony, assisted by his secretary, the Rev. Father Connelly, will in all probability occupy a seat at the same table with the Marquis and Marquise de Castellane, the parents of the bridegroom. Count de Castellane, the parents of the bridegroom of the washing the pages of the different party for the members of the bridegroom of the washing the pages of the pages and castellane has arranged to give a dinner party in honor of his parents, who are expected to arrive in a day or two at the latest. Miss Gould will probably sive a lancehoon or flue star in the world of the world of the washing the pages of the will be the latest reception with music in the series given by Miss Callender and Miss. Henjamin Charles and the pages o

St. Louis, Feb. 23.-Miss Camilia Thompson, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Thompson, of this city, and Howard Townsend Martin, of Newthis city, and Howard Townsend Martin, of New-York City, were married this evening at Christ-Church Cathedral, the Rev. Dr. Montgomery Schuyler performing the ceremony. The bride, by the alliance, becomes the aunt of the young Counters of Bradley-Martin, of New-York. One thousand in-vitations were issued, and a number of guests from Chicago and New-York were present. The honey-moon will be spent in Europe.

London, Feb. 22.—Curven Sisterson, a leading wholesale fee merchant of Lendon, was married wholesale tea merchant of London, was married in St. George's Church, Hanover Square, to-day to Mrs. Spaulding, widow of a New-York lawyer. The Bishop of Lichfield performed the ceremony. There was a full choral service, and the church was lav-ishly decorated with flowers. The bride received over 200 presents. The couple will spend a short season at Eastbourne, and later will make a tour of the United States.

GAVEL PRESENTED TO MR. DEPEW.

prise was let loose. Edward Hagaman Hall, the ening volume as Mr. Depew rose to reply, fonding the gavel with the touch of a veteran and expert.

MR DEPEW'S RESPONSE. Mr. Depew said among other things:

Mr. Denew said among other things:

A surprise party, on reaching the house of the clergyman usually finds it cleansed and harmshell, but this time the secret this been well kept, I had no idea that I was to be the wickin of any such surprise as this. I can only fay that if Mayor Strong would select your presentation orator as the medium through which his much-like used and "cussed" views on Sunlay saloons should be transmitted to his constituents, they would have met with a most amiable reception. If the kick us had first heard Mr. Hall's remarks they would have understood that the saloon has always been the bulwark of our interties. For a younger man than I, these views would have been unsettling, but I believe in following the ideas of Mr. Evarts, who once said at dinner that he drank wine under the order of his doctor, being assured that the taste would not be inherited by his grown-up children. I accept this gavel, however, with great pleasure and due appreciation of the great honor conferred by its presentation.

by its presentation.

May it prove a perpetual inspiration at meetings of the society. May its sound call forth the eloquence which has in all time been roused by the memory of the great deeds of the past. Let it recall the gavel which ruled the Congress to which

Prolonged handelapping followed Mr. Depew's earnest words. The gavel which was given him is ten inches in length, the head and handle being about the head of the gavel has a socket for the

...... On the end of the handle is a tip of polished silver on which is engraved: "Timber from Fraunces's

WHAT MR. ROOSEVELT SAID Robert B. Roosevelt spoke in a happy vein in eulogy of Mr. Depew and of the appropriateness of the surprise which had been given him. He then took up his subject, "Obedience of the American People to Legally Constituted Authority," and showed how the whole fabric of our Government rested upon obedience to law. He said that in the matter of the peaceful yielding up of office by out-going officials, the whole system of popular government could be upset by a failure on the part of the displaced officeholders to yield obedience to that governing principle of America. There was no way of getting them out if they should persist in stay-ing. There was no army to drive them forth. The action of the courts was apt to be slow and faltering, but such was the deference to law of the American people that thousands of fat offices were each year peacefully given up without a moment's

"The Chamber of Commerce of New-York," wasn't there. Warren Higley spoke eloquently and in-structively upon "Alexander Hamilton and the Constitution."

GENERAL EWING'S REMARKS.

Mr. Depew then called on General Thomas Ewing for his views on "Washington's Humane Character." General Ewing said:

This society is very exacting about the lineal descent of its members, but I notice that it is not exacting as to its lineal descent from tiffe to subject matter in the efforts of its orators. (Laughter.) So I may not altogether stick to my text.

The speaker then sketched the scene when Washington passed down the Bowery to Fraunces's Tavern on his way to resign his Continental commission. He described the present condition of that historic hostelry, and told in well-chosen words the story of Washington's farewell to his officers in that place; of his embarkation at Whitehall and add his triumphal progress to Philadelphia.

ADDRESS OF MR. HALL. Mr. Depew then said that the strong point of the society was history, and in the effort for absolute accuracy in history they had selected Henry Hall When the applause which greeted Mr. Hall had subsided, he spoke substantially as follows:

when the appears which greeted Mr. Half had subsided, he spoke substantially as follows:

Mr. President and Compatriots: The National Society of Sons of the American Revolution came into existence in Fraunce's Tavern, and many of the members of our society have from time to time asked for the story of its organization. The Society of the Cincinnati, formed in 1783, was the first and for nearly a hundred years the only society and for mearly a hundred years the only society of men whose membership was derived from the American Revolution. It was always a smill society and has grown smaller with time, and now has about five hundred members. It takes no part in public affairs. It is virtually a delightful social club, or collection of social clubs, whose one public service has been to keep alive among its own members and their immediate relatives a strong interest in pedigree and in the American Revolution.

About 1875 the people of the United States entered upon a period of about fifteen years of celebrations of 100th anniversaries of leading events of the American Revolution. These celebrations took place

Vork. It is to take place at Sherry's, and the entitle stable based engaged for the purish the stable based of the stable based of the purish the stable based of the purish the stable based of the purish the stable based of the

ENLISTING THE EAST.

In 1881, eight years after the first start in California, a few men in New-York City, includ-ing some to whom had been sent the constitution, circulars and bulletins of the California Society, did prise was let loose. Edward Hagaman trac-registrar of the society, arose with a mysterious parcel under his arm. Unwinding a mass of wrap-parcel under his arm. Unwinding a persel under his arm. Unwinding a mass of wraping paper, he produced a beautiful little gavel.

In presenting the gavel Mr. Hall said in part:

The president of this society has for many years kept that organization in order with the use of no other weapon in general than his knuckles. At times he has resorted to other weapon in general than his knuckles. As the serior of the mean propriate to thim nor to the society. As the term of our perennial president promises to be as eternal as his good behavior, it has become necessary to provide him with something more durable than knuckles. As the term of our perennial president promises to be as eternal as his good behavior, it has become necessary to provide him with something more durable than knuckles. As the term of our perennial president, it has become necessary to provide him with something more durable than knuckles are to the society. As the term of our perennial president of our objects of the society of the soci two sets of societies. No one wanted two sets No one chought of it. But what did New-York do? They actually met and adopted a new constitution, this one thousand it was made longer, more explicit search aftile was made longer, more explicit ment and natural pride of every sixer State, and declarms was upon any movement having for some object the co-equality of the different of some and the controlled price of the price of the contro who convinced his hearers that the old Greeden spirit is by no means frozen in the veins of young America.

Before the "spread" and speechmaking a business meeting was held. The report of the secretary, John Winfield Scott, showed that the total membership of the New York State Society have been of St. an increase during the last year of 17. His statement that the society had no contest with any one or anybody which "attentis to emplained. He said that "the Century Year Book for Young Americans," oublished under the auspices of the society, had reached an edition of 2009. H. K. Bush-Brown offered a resolution, which was adopted, that a committee of three be appointed to visit Stony Point and report on the feasibility of making it a State or National ark it was also resolved to incorporate the society, so that it could take title to property.

The following officers were Chauncey M. Depew, Veeppresident, Rohert B. Roosevelt; socretary John Winfield Scott is a sure. It allies Stewart; registrar, Edward Hagman Hall; historian Henry Hall. Board of Managers—The general officers and Colonel John C. Cafforn Walter S. Lozan, Ambrew J. C. Fové, General Ferdinand P. Earle, Captain Hugh R. Garden, General Thomas Wilson, U. S. A. Colone: "Century John Wunfield Scott, Joseph Warren Cutler, ex-officio, Dr. William Seward Webb, Colonel John C. Cafforn, Depew, ex-officio, Robert B. Roosevelt, ex-officio, Dr. William Seward Webb, Colonel John C. Cafforn, Lord Warren, Ernstus Corning, Dr. Ozias W. Peck. Colonel Frederick D. Grant, Henry C. Brewster, W. W. J. Warren.

HEROIC TREATMENT.

From The Chicago Record.

Politiks—It would be a great thing for me if I could get some of my constituents to eulogize me handsomely just now. Can you think of any way of getting them to do so.

Hartless—Yes. Dis-

THE DRAMA.

MR. LOCKE RICHARDSON.

The public that enjoys dramatic reading may enjoy that art at its best, during the coming season of Lent,—arrangements having been made for a series of six recitals by Mr. Locke Richardson, at the Waldorf, on successive Tuesdays, from March 5 till April 9. Mr. Richardson's eminence in this field has been gained by many years of conscientious labor and devoted study, and it was long ago recognitions. nized. His power of memory is remarkable, but nized. His power of memory is remarkable, but more remarkable is his faculty of impersonation. Time and use have only strengthened his rich, copious, and sympathetic voice, and wide experience has but a deled a charm of deeper repose to his delicate art and his distinguished manner. Mr. Richardson is doing a good work in New-York society,—widening the knowledge and stimulating the study of the best literature, while giving pleasure to the best intelligence and finest taste of his audience. The programme for the recitais at the Waldorf is as follows: March 5, "Macbeth"; March 12, "A Christmas Carol"; March 19, "The Merry Wives of Windsor"; March 28, "The Merchant of Venice"; April 2, "The Rivais"; April 9, "The Bible and Tennyson." Each recital will besin at 2:45 p. m. Tickets for the course cost file. The ladies under whose patronage these entertainments will occur are Mrs. David Eutterfield, Mrs. Richard Colgate, Miss Cockroft, Mrs. Joseph Drexel, Mrs. Alfred P. Dix, Mrs. W. O. Dominick, Mrs. Ogden Doremus, Mrs. D. S. Egleston, Mrs. Austin Flint, Mrs. George White Field, Mrs. Louis Fitzgerald, Mrs. J. Warren Goddard, Mrs. Malcolm Grahem, Mrs. Frederick Goodridg, Mrs. Lyon Gardiner, M. S. Lewis Gilleszie, Mrs. Livingston Jones, Mrs. Charles Lamer, Mrs. James McKeen, Mrs. John Sherwood, Mrs. William A. Street, Mrs. H. M. Sanders, Mrs. F. F. Thompson, Mrs. George G. Wheelock, Mrs. Jacob Wendel and Miss Carrie White.

MR. JOHN HARE. more remarkable is his faculty of impersonation.

MR. JOHN HARE.

It is probable, as announced yesterday, that the eminent English comediar, Mr. John Hare will visit American in the dramatic season of 1886. Mr. Hare is as thoroughly an actor as the late John Gilbert was—sound, substantial, true, earnest, and completely equipped; and if he should come here the playgoing public would have an opportunity of rare enforment. Mr. Hare is a peculiar actor, intellectual, brightly humorous, direct simple, and the easy master of a rounded and finished style. He is of the order of William Farren, Horace Wigan, and Charles Fisher—but a man of marked individuality. Mr. Hare has been associated with the London state for thirty years. American visitors to London are acquainted with his comedy productions at the Garrick Theatre, of which he is the manager, and they will remember him as Sir Peter Teazle, as Sir John Vesey, and especially as the sanguine brother and elderly husband in "A Pair of Spectacles." His performance of Dunscombe-Dunscombe, in Robertson's "M. P.," has been much admired. Mr. Hare's advent in America would arouse interest and would be welcomed. It is probable, as announced yesterday, that the

MR. TREE'S PARTING WORDS.

and his company ended last night at Abbey's The-aire. The bill included scenes from "The Merry Wives of Windsor" and from "Captain Swift."

Wives of Windsor" and from "Captain Swift."

Much enthusiasm was displayed, and the audience insisted that Mr. Tree should make a speech. He replied to the demand as follows:

Ladies and Gentlemen: It is difficult for me to express my deep appreciation of the kindness which I have received at your hands during these opening weeks of this my first visit to America. As I add to-night, at the end of the third act, "We have had a good time here." The generous support which you have given us has exceeded our most sanguine expectations, and I should feel very sad indeed at hidding you goodby this evening were it not that I have been able to arrange with those pioneers of American theartical enterprise. Messrs. Abbey, Schoeffel & Grau, to return to New-York on April 8 for one week. I regret that the time cannot be longer; indeed. Messrs. Abbey, Schoeffel & Grau have invited me to extend the visit, but it is imperative that we should be at the helm of the Haymarket Theatre before the end of April.

I hope during that week, however, to present to you a new play called "Robert Macaire, the Philosopher," by W. E. Henly and the late Robert loss of the position of the state of the philosopher, by W. E. Henly and the late Robert loss of the principles of the principles of the philosopher, by W. E. Henly and the late Robert loss of the principles of the p I hope during that week however, to present to you a new play called "Robert Macaire, the Philosopher," by W. E. Henly and the late Robert Louis Stevenson, and in addition Ibsen's "An Enemy of the People," It is a special pride to me that our dear "Hamlet" should have been our greatest success, and in that character I shall hope to reappear before you in April. A great Englishman, who was present at our performance to day, Dean Hole, of Rochester, said to me after witnessing the performance of "Hamlet": "It did me heart good to see that great play listened to by that great audience. Talk about decline of the drama. he said, with such an audience and such a play"—and I am bound with the modesty of canor to add—"and with such actors."
Ladies and gentlemen, I should like to say more, but time and trains wait for no man, and I can only once more say from my heart I thank you.

The whole of Mt. Tree's company took a mid-

The whole of Mr. Tree's company took a mid-night train for Chicago, where it will remain for two weeks, and it will then visit several of the other larger cities, returning to New-York for a week in April, before sailing for England.

Too much cannot be said in praise of Granda, which is one of the best foods for children and invalids.—UNION SIGNAL Ready cooked. At Health Food Company, 61 Pitth Avenue.

MARRIED.

KNOTHE CORWIN-On February 23, at Brantford, Canada, by the Rey Mr. W. L. Ruttelge, Cara Corwin to Frank F. Knothe.

Notices of marriages and deaths must be in-dursed with full name and address.

No. 62 West 52d-st., John Welleman, in the Blin Year of file age, elatives and friends are invited to attend the funeral at his late residence. To-selay, the 26th last, at 10 a.m., ODDRUFF On Thursday, February 21, at his residence, 20 East 80th-st., Mahlon J. Woodruff, aged 58 years. at his late residence. Torselay, the 28th inst., at 10 a. m. 10 DDRLFF - On Thursday, February 21, at his residence, 20 East Sub-st. Mabled J. Woodruff, aged 38 years, uneral services at his late esidence, on Sunday, the 22th inst., at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, urial at New-Britain, Conn., or Monday, the 25th inst. Indity ontit flowers. tindly omit flowers.

Lew Haven (Conn.), Whillington (D. C.) and Chicago (III.) popers please copy.

Special Notices.

Unideman's Replies to Ingersoll.

the series will be delivered on next Sanday evening. Subject, "Some Ancient and Madern Infides." Mr. Haldeman is a very gifted and scheduly pulpit orator, and does not suffer on the score of true eloquence and power in comparison with the silver-tongued Ingersoll. As a disputant he is a master of the art of self-defence as well as of vicorous assault, and his discussions have been entirely impersonoi and strictly on the merits of the issues raised. The subject for March Id will be "Questions by Honest Doubters of the Bible Answered." The "Duplex" Bank Cheek!

Sending bank bills by mail in payment of small ac-counts is inexcusable since the "Duplex" form of bank check has been introduced. Its use prevents the possi-bility of toss to the sender, and crime is prevented by bility of loss to the schaer, and rine in the must other-removing temptation to rob the mail, which must other-wise continue as long as bank hills, or the ordinary bank check is remitted, because the latter is so easily raised from small to large amount as to be a still greater temptation to robbery than bank bills, remitted by mail. The "Duplex" eneck cannot be raised so as to eccasion less to those using it to remit small amounts, and it is as easy to write and sign a "Duplex" as any other bank check. WM. T. DOREMUS, 19 Fenimore-st., Brooklyn,

N. Y.

"Dry-Royal,"
One of the Choicest Dry Sparking Wines of France, $21.00 case qis.

The "Mexsotint" Photographs (Platinum) are the most exquisite style of nontransport

The "Mezsother photographs trating are the most exquisite style of portraiture—made of photographs Bockwood, 1.40 Broadway 40th-st.), GROUNI FLOOR. Sitters receive Mr. Rockwoods personal attention.

This famous water in now (by a most elaborate tubing) restored to all its former strength, and excellence.

Special Notices.

A.- Fifth Avenue Art Galleries, 306 FIFTH AVENUE. NEAR SATH STREET. FREE EXHIBITION DAY AND EVENING. OIL PAINTINGS

> AND WATER COLORS BELONGING TO MR. A. WOLFF, JR., with the addition of others belonging to the estates of the late MR. JOHN McKESSON MR. AUGUSTUS KOUNTZE.

BY AUCTION. Thursday Evening, February 28,

TO BE SOLD BY ORDER OF THE EXECUTORS

AT 8 O'CLOCK. ORTGIES & CO.

Managers.

ROBERT SOMERVILLE,

A Merry Laugh.

A merry laugh! it cheers the heart, And lingers sweetly after; It lights the face; it warms the soul-

A peal of merry laughter! From childhood's or from beauty's lips, From manhood's throat outringing. Comes sunshine with the merry laugh, / New light o'er life outflinging.

But how much sweeter sounds the laugh
If white teeth show behind it!
And all who wish this crowning charm
In SOZODONT will find it.

LAUGHTER LENDS A NEW CHARM To beauty when it discloses a , cetty set of teeth. White-ness, when nature has supplied this element of lovellness, may be retained through life by using the fragrant SOZODONT.

FIFTH AVENUE AUCTION ROOMS WM. B. NORMAN, Auctioneer NOW ON EXHIBITION FURNITURE.

RELATING TO
The Periods of Louis XIV., XV., XVI., the American Colonies and First Empire. The short New-York season of Beerbohm Tree Carved Oak Dining-Room Chairs, Cabinets, etc., etc.

Carved Oak Dining-Room Chairs, Cabinets, etc., Ca.

ALSO
Real Bronze Figures and Vases, Royal Bengal Tiges,
Leopard, and Wolf Skins, Handsome Chandellera, Old Staffordshire Plates and Cupe, European Porcelains, Cut Glass, a number of Sporting Prints and Colored Engawings, several Turkish Rugs and Carpets,
Marble Bust of the Apollo Relyedere, etc.
TO BE SOLD BY AUCTION

Wednesday, Thursday, & Friday Afternoons, FEB. 27TH, 28TH AND MARCH 18T, At two o'clock

Rolland Art Galleries,

A. PREYER & CO., 329 FIFTH AVE., NEW-YORK,

19 WOLVENSTRAAT, AMSTERDAM, FINE EXAMPLES OF

THE LEADING MODERN DUTCH MASTERS: ISRAELS, MAUVE, J. MARIS, W. MARIS, BOSBOOM, MESDAG, ROELOFS, GABRING NEUHUYS, KEVER, BLOMMERS, POGGENBECK, AND OTHERS.

ARCHITEC 1 ( RAL LEAGUE of N.Y

NOW OPEN A: THE GALLERIES OF

THE AMERICAN FINE ARTS SOCIETY

215 West 17th-st. Open day and evening. A imission. 25 cm.

Crab Apple Blossoms Perfume. in whatever form, is only genuine when bearing name of the Crown Perfumery Co., London, Don't be defrauded.

Postoffice Notice.

Postoffice Notice.

Foreign mails for the week ending March 2 will close gromptly in all cases) at this office as follows:

MONDAY—At 3 p. m. for Belize. Puerto Cortez and Guatemaia, per a. s. Stillwater, from New-Orteans.

TUESDAY—At 6 s. m. for Europe, per s. s. Lahn, via Southampton and Bremen Octters for Ireland must be directed 'per Lahn'; at 1 p. m. for Brazil, per s. s. Rossel, via Pernambuco, Bahia, Rio-Janeiro and Santos Octters for North Brazil and La Plara countries must be directed 'per Bessel'! at 3 p. m. for Cotta Rica, via Limon, per s. s. H. Dumois, from New-Orleans.

WEDNESDAY—At 5 a. m. for Belgium direct, per s. s. Noordand 'i), at 6 a. m. for Ireland, per s. s. Majestic, via Queenstown detters for other parts of Europe must be directed 'per Majestic, via Queenstown detters for other parts of Europe must be directed 'per Majestic, via Queenstown detters for other parts of Europe must be directed 'per Majestic, via Queenstown detters for other parts of Europe must be directed 'per Majestic, via Queenstown detters for other parts of Europe must be directed 'per Antilla dietters must be directed 'per Antilla dietter

Electrical in the city. February 22, Senson Beymer, in European Services in Philadrical Services at the Reference Competence by the Hayana and 1, p. 1995. James Howender, D. D., in the Solth Season Beyonder, D. 1995. James Howender, D. D., in the Solth Season Beyonder, D. 1995. James Howender, D. D., in the Solth Season Beyonder, D. 1995. James Howender, D. D., in the Solth Season Beyonder, D. 1995. James Howender, D. D., in the Solth Season Beyonder, D. 1995. James Howender, D. 1995. James Religions Notices.

ADELPHIA HALL, 521 st., 7th-ave. Mrs. HELEN 7. BRIGHAM. Meetings every Sunday, 11 and 7:45. A SERVICE PARTICIPATED IN BY MORE THAN 200 children, consisting of singing and recitations, is held every Sunday afternoon at 3.30, to which the public is invited, in the Five Points House of Industry, 155 Worthst. Donations of clothing and shoes solicited.

ALL SOULS CHURCH, Madison-ave, and 66th-st,— R. HEBER NEWTON will preach at i a. m. the first of a series of sections on "The Religion of Jesus." Evensons at 8 p. m., a one-hour service with full choir and section, by Rev. A. N. HENSHAW. See free.

AMERICAN TEMPERANCE UNION, hickering Hall, 5th-ave. 18th-st.—Sunday, 3 o'clock, address by the fearless and popular pulph crator, Rev. STEPHEN MERITT. Cheice musical programme. Miss Anna Park, cornetist; Miss Genevieve Noakes, soloist.

LOSEPH BOGARDUS, President.

EDWIN GALLOWAY, Secretary.

CHRIST CHUR'H, Tist-st. and Boulevard.—Dr. J. SHIPMAN, Rector; Rev. HERBERT SHIPMAN, assistant—Morning service at 11 o'clock. Evening service at Sunday-school at 10 a. m.

CHURCH OF THE ASCENSION. SEATS FREE.
5th-ave. and 10th-s:
9 a. m., Hoty Communion; 11 c. m., morning service; 6
0. m., musical service; 5 p. m., evening service.
Rev. PERCY S. GRANT, Rector.

CHURCH OF THE HEAVENLY REST. 5th ave., above 45th st. Rev. D. PARKER MORGAN, D. D., Rector-sunday, February 24, at 4 p. m., special musical services, "Holy City" (Part II). Gaul, by combined choirs of Heavenly Rest and St. Ann's Church, Brooklyn Heights. SOCIETY FOR ETHICAL CULTURE. Sunday, February 24th, 1895, at 11:15 a. m., lecture by Mr. M. M. MANGASARIAN, at Carnegie Music Hall, corner 57th-st. and 7th-see, Subject: "What is Priendship?" All interested are invited.

ST. MARK'S CHURCH, 10th-st. and 2d-ave.—Sunday, Feb. 24th, 11 a. m., morning prayer and sermon. 8 p. m., evening prayer and sermon. Dr. RYLANCE, Rector, Rev. RICHARD CORDEN, Mulster.

TEMPLE FMANUEL, 5th-ave. and 43d st.—To-day (Sunday), at 11 a. m., Dr. J. SHLVERMAN lectures on "The Moral Indunce of Piction, with Special Reference to Trilby." All interested are invited.